IV.	Summary of Legal Argument	56
V.	Legal Requirements for a Binding Agreement	57
	A. Canadian Law	57
	B. International Law	62
VI.	The Absence of Agreement in this Case	68
	A. There is no formal agreement adopting the Stanfield line as the line dividing the offshore areas of Newfoundland and Labrador and Nova Scotia.	68
	B. The Stanfield line was nothing more than a proposal in an unsuccessful negotiation.	68
	C. The purpose of the negotiation in which the Stanfield line was proposed was ownership of the offshore.	76
	D. A critical part of the Stanfield line was left undefined.	77
	E. Acceptance of the Stanfield line by Newfoundland and Labrador would have required legislative approval of the Province.	82
	F. The Stanfield proposal was conditional on federal acceptance and constitutional implementation.	84
	G. The Accords and the implementing legislation are inconsistent with the existence of an agreement between Newfoundland and Labrador and Nova Scotia.	88
VII.	Conclusions	91
