Territorial Acknowledgement:

As ancestors to the settlers of this territory, we acknowledge that our learning experience takes place on unceded and unsurrendered territory of Wolastoqiyik and Passamaquoddy. This territory extends from Maine in the southeast to Saint John where the mighty Wolastoq (now known as the Saint John River) meets the Atlantic Ocean.

The Treaties of Peace and Friendship signed in 1725 and 1726 between the British Crown, the Wolastoquey ("the people of the bountiful river") and Passamaquoddy did not deal with the surrender of land and resources nor did it shift the "ownership" title to the Crown; rather, rules were established for an ongoing relationship between nations. We must respectfully acknowledge this and our roles in healing and reconciliation between nations.
