

Employment Opportunity

Graduate Teaching Assistantship (GSTA) Winter term 2025

RSS 1081 – Health and Wellness I

Positions available: 1 GSTA position

Hours: 57/term each

Rate of pay: $29.12 (MSc) / $30.41 (PhD)

Employment Date: January 5th to April 26th, 2025

Lab/Tutorial Times (Days & Times): MWF, 12:30PM-01:20PM

Course Description: An examination of health behaviours of individuals, encompassing social, physical, emotional, and intellectual aspects of health and wellness. The course will use health research to address health concerns, trends, risks, and repercussions associated with health decision-making.

Responsibilities:

1. A one-hour TA meeting during the first week of classes to establish the TA schedule, complete required paperwork and all for discussion related to the TA responsibilities for the course.
2. Grading weekly discussion board posts, grading behaviour change assignments, and invigilating midterm/exam.

Knowledge and Desired Skills:

1. Candidate must have an educational background in the field of kinesiology and health/wellness
2. Due to the one-week turnaround time for assignments, the candidate will have strong time management skills.
3. Strong record keeping abilities to manage lab/tutorial attendance, as well as grades.

To Apply:

1. Include a current resume
2. Apply to: Dr. Matthew Miller, Faculty of Kinesiology, UNBF
3. Way to apply, email: matthew.miller2@unb.ca

DEADLINE DATE TO APPLY: December 13, 2024

“This position is covered by the Collective Agreement negotiated between PSAC and UNB. The University of New Brunswick and the Public Service Alliance of Canada are committed to Employment Equity.”